What both sides are agreeing

1. The seller sells, and Jupiter Coastal Media LLC buys, the items listed above for the total shown, paid in full at signing.
2. The seller confirms the items are theirs to sell, are free of any loan, lien or claim by anybody else, and were not stolen.
3. Ownership passes on payment and the sale is final. There is no return, refund or claim on either side afterwards, and the buyer may resell the items at any price.
4. Where the seller is acting for an estate or for somebody else, they confirm they are entitled to sell on that person's behalf.
5. The price is what the buyer offered and the seller accepted on the day. It is not a valuation, not an appraisal, and not a statement of what the items are worth to anybody else.
6. The items are sold as they are. Neither side has relied on any promise about them that is not written on this document.
7. Both parties keep a signed copy. Florida law applies.
